* EUROSAI is one of the regional groups of the International Organisation of Supreme Audit Institutions (INTOSAI). The main objectives of EUROSAI are to advance the development of public sector audit, to promote professional co-operation among its members, and to encourage the exchange of information, methodology, audit documentation and procedures. Established in 1990, EUROSAI has 50 members (the national audit institutions of 49 European states and the European Court of Auditors). In addition to its ongoing technical cooperation and development work, it holds a congress every three years to deal with the organisation's governance and strategic development.
